

Internet

How adequate is your internet connection for you and your household?

If your internet connection is not fast enough, how interested would you be in taking a long-term contract with a single community internet provider if a scheme existed that could help improve speed?

